

Family Talk – Pursue Relationship with Jesus

LISTEN TOGETHER

Read Luke 10:25-37

1. Who should have stopped to help the man? (Parents, this may open up some interesting conversation about our inner prejudices. All of us are called by God to serve.)
2. Why should this person help more than the others?
3. What caused the Samaritan man to stop and help? (v.33)
4. The Samaritan man gave more than just a bandage. How does it make you feel knowing the Samaritan man gave generously to a total stranger? (v. 34-35)

LIVE IT

This Bible story is familiar to almost everyone. The Good Samaritan teaches us about serving one another. The Samaritan did three things for the man.

1. He noticed his need.
2. He met that need.
3. He provided a future path.

Two questions we should practice asking ourselves while we serve our family and others are:

Question 1: What does that person need?

Question 2: How does God want to me to help meet the need?

LEAN ON GOD

Dear God,

You loved us by sending your Son to serve us. I'm so thankful for Your love. Teach me to serve others and change my heart into one that loves to serve in response to Your leading. Give our family an opportunity this week to serve someone in need.

We love You God!

Amen.
